

Commitment Towards Zero Waste

As a team of TURISMO AMITY TOURS LIMITADA whose business and purpose is the service of responsible tourism, located at Pucón/Chile, we assume the commitment to adopt a policy that allows us to protect the environment and prevent pollution, reducing the footprint of negative carbon that we produce and enhancing the positive, prioritizing a complete and efficient organic waste management process at all treatment levels in which we participate.

The company is committed to preventing and sustainably managing the waste generated by our services, promoting with our example and with specific plans, socio-environmental awareness in our community, aspiring to gradually implement a Zero Waste ideology in our processes , products and services. This is the commitment we must assume, to promote economic and social policies that allow us to protect the environment and prevent pollution as much as possible. We believe in these values, as well as we believe that more people have the right to have access to a healthier and friendlier life with the environment.

We are committed to earnestly meeting the objectives that we set ourselves in environmental matters with those entities and people with whom we interact: neighbors, clients, suppliers, organizations and government authorities.

This commitment is made publicly and as such, it is available to anyone who requests it.
